

LEADERSHIP IN A TIME OF FEAR AND UNCERTAINTY

Online Peer Coaching Series with Brian Jaudon

Brian will be offering three different leadership peer groups starting March 31st. These will feature customized coaching dedicated to navigating current leadership challenges presented by doing business in the coronavirus era. All organizations are navigating the new normal and your leadership must adapt to keep your employees engaged and productive as well as meet the needs of your customers and the market.

These groups will take place via Zoom videoconferencing and be limited to 8 leaders each to ensure time for customized coaching. There will be three different groups:

C-Suite Executives – Six Tuesdays March 31-May 5 at 11am-12:15pm EST

Small Business Owners – Six Tuesdays March 31-May 5 at 3-4:15pm EST

Nonprofit Leaders – Six Wednesdays April 1-May 6 at 11am-12:15pm EST

There will be an opportunity for each leader to present current leadership challenges and receive customized coaching from Brian as well as peer coaching from group participants. Brian will also be guiding group participants in drawing on their individual leadership core values, archetypes (roles), gifts and vision.

Pricing for each group as follows:

$275 per C-Suite executive

$225 per small business owner

$150 per nonprofit leader

Note: Do not let pricing be a barrier. If you want to participate and have a budget constraint, let us know.

Brian Jaudon is a master coach who is gifted in guiding both individuals and teams in leading with clarity, courage and conviction. He has worked with both global corporations as well as small businesses in a number of industries including manufacturing, technology and health care. In this series, Brian will be drawing on multiple trainings he has co-developed including The Power of Self Leadership, The Leader as Coach and Total Alignment Coaching.

For more information or to register, contact brian@brianjaudon.com or call 864.350.8070.

BRIAN JAUDON
— Live Your Vision — brianjaudon.com